

I use my quiet voice,
and I move slowly.

I can play and explore while being calm.

This is the entrance to the Kids Room.

Here is the fish tank.

I can say hello and point to the fish,
but I do not hit the glass.

There are a lot of things to do in the Kids Room.

I can play with puzzles and toys.

Other people use the library, too.
I may need to share the toys and take turns.

.....

I can pick out books to read.

I can read by myself, or someone else can read with me. It's okay to read out loud if we use our quiet voices.

Librarians are there
to help me.

I can go up to the desk and talk to a librarian.
Librarians help me find what I am looking for.
They can even help me find my grown-up if I get lost.

On special days, I can go to storytime.

I listen to the librarian read stories, and I sing songs
with my library friends.
This is the door to the Storytime Room.

On other days, I can attend
an event in the Radmacher Room or Petty Auditorium.

If there is a performer or a lot of people,
it might be loud.

If it is too loud, I can ask to

.....

If I am old enough to go to school, I can design things in the BOOMbox.

I have to share and take
This is the door
to the BOOMbox.

I can use a computer in the Lab.

I can use the internet
and play games.
This is the door to the Lab.

This is a Lab assistant.

When I want to use a computer, I tell them my name; then I can use a computer for one hour.
If someone else is waiting for a turn,
I may need to take a break.

There are study rooms for

I can ask the librarian at the desk
to help me sign into a study room.

This is the Sensory Break Room.

If I am feeling stressed, I can ask to use the Sensory Break Room. I can change the color of the lights and listen to relaxing sounds until I feel calm.

This is the door to the Sensory Break Room.

When it is warm outside, I can play in the courtyard.

There are many bathrooms

There are kid-size toilets and an adult-size changing table.

I can borrow books, movies,
games, and other things
with my library card.

When I am ready to check out, I can use the self-check machine or ask a library assistant to help me. I may have to wait for my turn.

When it's time to leave the library, I can ask for a sticker or a bookmark.

I can't wait to come back and visit again!
