- Read to your little ones when they're doing everyday activities like eating, taking a bath, getting ready for bed, etc.
- Point out the pictures in a book.
- Make different faces and use the words that show different emotions like surprise, happy, sad.
- Point at different writing you see while you are out and about (signs on the street, ingredients on things at the grocery store, etc.).
- Try using LOTE4Kids so your child can hear a story in another language.
- Narrate your day—inside, outside, etc.
- Go on a shape hunt (inside or outside).
- Compare and contrast objects of different sizes or textures.
- Enjoy some water play—inside or outside.
- Engage in some messy play.
- Sing songs together or echo each other.
